Dayang Celia Margaret Captier-Brooke

IN MEMORIAM

1944 - 2011

Celia Brooke Captier has just died in Rennes-le-Château. Daughter of Anthony Brooke, the last white Rajah of Sarawak, she had married Marcel Captier and worked a lot for the village, in particular to make known the "mystery" to the English-speaking public. She had just written an exciting autobiography, reflecting a particularly rich existence, and was looking for a publisher. Authentic princess, she was appreciated by all for her kindness and her infectious passion for her adopted village.

All our thoughts go out to her husband, Marcel, who tenderly helped her to fight against a long illness.

She was married first to David Ray Harper Inayat Khan (grandson of Pir-o-Murshid Hazrat ), married secondly Marcel Captier . She had a daughter by her first husband:

- Sura Brooke Harper, who has two sons;
- Leandro Kubilay and James Ray.
